Dear Mr. Dulles:

After reading INFAMOUS RECORD OF SOVIET ESPIONAGE by Col. Truman Smith in the August issue of READER'S DIGEST, it would seem that we owe no one an apology for what we do.

In fact I hope that your department keeps up the good work. Also that the F.B.I. will work with you in rounding up more of the Soviet agents that are loose in this country.

Respectfully yours,
J. T. Lauriat
